

A Woman Among Warlords

The Extraordinary
Story of an Afghan Who Dared to Raise Her Voice

"Joya is raising an eloquent voice, and we owe to her, and to her people, to listen carefully, to learn, and to act."
-- Noam Chomsky

Malalai Joya has been called the bravest woman in Afghanistan. Elected to the Afghan parliament in 2003 and 2005, she was suspended in 2007 for challenging the presence of warlords in the Afghan parliament. She has been compared to the symbol of Burma's democracy movement, Aung San Suu Kyi.

Malalai Joya will talk about her memoir: "A Woman Among Warlords: The Extraordinary Story of An Afghan Who Dared Raise Her Voice".

Saturday, Nov. 7th, 3:45 pm

San Jose State University Engineering Auditorium

Near the campus entrance at
S. 7th St and San Fernando, San Jose, CA

3:45 pm - Talk and Book Signing

Meet the Author! Book signing after the talk Admission is Free!

Donations welcomed to cover expenses
(Parking at garage at 4th St. and San Fernando)

Sponsored by:

Middle East Studies (SJSU), Student Assoc. for Middle Eastern Studies (SAMES at SJSU), South Bay Mobilization (SBM) and Culture and Conflict Forum (CCF)

Culture and Conflict Forum
Challenging Culture and Policy to End Injustice

www.CultureAndConflict.com / (408) 677-9137
contact@CultureAndConflict.com